Dear Mike:

This letter shall summarize the terms regarding your separation from Penske Media Corporation (the “Company”).

1. Your employment with the Company will terminate effective as of December 31, 2025 (the “Termination Date”). On or prior to the Termination Date, you will be paid all of your earned wages through the Termination Date, reduced by applicable deductions under federal, state and local law. All of the Company’s benefits which have been provided to you during your employment will terminate on the Termination Date. You will receive under separate cover information regarding your right to continue health insurance under the Company’s health insurance plans pursuant to the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (“COBRA”).

2. You agree that you have received from the Company all of your compensation, wages, bonuses, accrued paid time off, commissions, expense reimbursements and benefits to which you may be entitled as a result of your employment with the Company, and that no additional wages, bonuses, accrued paid time off, commissions, expense reimbursements, benefits or compensation of any type is owing to you, except as set forth in this letter agreement. You affirm that you have no known workplace injuries or occupational diseases compensable under California’s workers’ compensation laws which have not already been disclosed to the Company, and that you have been provided and/or have not been denied or retaliated against for requesting any leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act, the California Family Rights Act or any other similar law.

3. In consideration of the promises and releases made herein, and provided that you execute and deliver a copy of this letter agreement back to us and do not revoke your signature as set forth in paragraph 5 below, and that you comply with the terms and conditions of this letter agreement, the Company agrees to pay you as severance the aggregate amount of $88,333.33 (reduced by applicable withholdings under federal, state and local law), which shall be payable to you in one lump sum within ten (10) business days after the Effective Date (as defined in paragraph 5 below).

4. In consideration for the promises herein and payment of the consideration set forth in paragraph 3 above, you, on behalf of yourself and your heirs, successors and assigns, voluntarily and of your own free will, hereby waive, release, acquit and forever discharge the Company and each of its present, former and future parent companies, subsidiaries and affiliates, and each of its and their respective present, former and future officers, directors, shareholders, members, owners, trustees, insurers, attorneys, fiduciaries, benefit plans, administrators, creditors, employees, co-employers, clients, agents, and each of their respective successors and assigns (collectively, the “Released Parties”), from any and all claims, charges, complaints, grievances, rights, damages, liabilities, causes of action and demands of whatever nature, whether known or unknown, that you possess or may possess arising out of, based upon, in whole or in part, or attributable to any act, event or omission which has occurred at any time in the past up through the date that you execute this letter agreement, including, but not limited to, any and all claims under the United States Constitution; the Constitution of the State of California; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended by the Civil Rights Act of 1991; Sections 1981 and 1983 of the Civil Rights Act of 1866;

the Equal Pay Act; the Fair Pay Act; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended by the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act; the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974; the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008; the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act; COBRA; The Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification (WARN) Act and Cal WARN; the National Labor Relations Act; the Family and Medical Leave Act; the Rehabilitation Act of 1973; the Americans With Disabilities Act; the Occupational Safety and Health Act and California state equivalent; the California Fair Employment and Housing Act; the California Business and Professions Code; California Whistleblower Protection Laws; California Family Rights Act; the California Family Rights Act; the California Labor Code including Sections 132a and 4553; the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004; the California Industrial Welfare Commission (Wage) Orders; wrongful termination in violation of public policy ("Tameny" claims); as well as any amendments to such laws or any other applicable federal, state or local law, rule, regulation, requirement or common law.

This release also includes, without limitation, claims based on age, race, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sex or sexual orientation, physical or mental disability or other protected characteristics; claims for wrongful termination, constructive discharge, harassment, discrimination, and/or retaliation, including based on age, race, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sex or sexual orientation, physical or mental disability or other protected characteristics; claims for failure to accommodate and/or denial of accommodation; claims for defamation, invasion of privacy, personal injury, assault and battery, and/or intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress; claims for fraud, misrepresentation, violation of public policy, breach of fiduciary duty and/or tort; claims for breach of contract (oral, written, express or implied), including claims under any offer letter, employment letter or employment agreement with the Company or any of the other Released Parties; claims for tortious interference with contract, breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing and/or promissory estoppel; claims arising under or from any stock option, restricted stock, stock appreciation rights, profit interests, or other securities, ownership, equity or equity-related agreement or plan and any grants or awards thereunder; claims arising under any commission, incentive or bonus agreement or plan; claims arising under any retirement, pension, severance or other benefit-related agreement or plan; claims for wages, overtime, bonuses, commissions, incentives, equity grants, on call pay, pay in lieu of notice, severance pay, and/or compensation or remuneration of any kind; claims for costs, penalties, damages, interest and/or attorneys' fees; and any other claims arising from or relating to your employment with the Company or any Released Party based on any theory or law now or hereafter recognized.

You represent that you have not made any claims or allegations related to harassment (including, without limitation, sexual harassment or abuse), discrimination, or retaliation for making such claims, and that none of the payments set forth in this letter agreement are related to claims of harassment (including, without limitation, sexual harassment or abuse), discrimination, or retaliation for making harassment or discrimination claims.

The releases herein do not include any (i) claims that cannot be released or waived as a matter of law; (ii) claims to vested and nonforfeitable benefits pursuant to the terms of a Company benefit plan in which you participated; or (iii) claims to enforce this letter agreement.

5. You acknowledge and agree that you are waiving and releasing any claims or rights you may have under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended ("ADEA"), and that you are hereby entering into this waiver and release knowingly and voluntarily. This waiver and release does not apply to any rights or claims that may arise under the ADEA after the Effective Date of this letter agreement. You acknowledge that the consideration given for the release of any ADEA claims is in addition to anything of value to which you were already entitled. You further acknowledge that you have been advised by this writing that:

- (a) you should consult with an attorney prior to executing this letter agreement;

(b) you have up to forty-five (45) days from the Termination Date within which to consider whether to execute this letter agreement and release any age claim under the ADEA. If you choose to execute this letter agreement before such 45-day period has elapsed, you do so knowingly and voluntarily, and you agree that your decision was not induced by the Company through fraud, misrepresentation or threat to withdraw or alter the offer;

(c) you have seven (7) days following your execution of this letter agreement to revoke the release of any age claim under the ADEA by notifying Todd Greene, EVP Business Affairs, Penske Media Corporation, 11355 W. Olympic Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90064, of this fact in writing within the seven (7) day period; and

(d) the releases given herein shall not be effective until the seven-day revocation period has expired. The effective date of this letter agreement shall be the eighth day following the date you sign this letter agreement assuming no revocation has been received by the Company (the "Effective Date").

6. You understand that the releases contained in paragraphs 4 and 5 shall be effective as a full and final accord and satisfaction and general release of all claims, whether known or unknown, against the Company and the Released Parties mentioned in paragraphs 4 and 5. You expressly acknowledge your familiarity with the provisions of Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California which provides as follows:

"A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY."

You waive any right which you have or may have under the above-mentioned Section 1542 to the fullest extent that you may lawfully waive all such rights pertaining to the subject matter of this letter agreement. You are aware that you may hereafter discover claims or facts in addition to or different from those you now know or believe to exist with respect to the subject matter of this letter agreement; however, you and your successors and assigns hereby settle and release all of the claims which you had, have, or may have against the Company and the Released Parties.

7. You acknowledge that this letter agreement is being provided to you in connection with a termination of a group of employees, and that you have been provided with information describing the job titles affected by the decisional unit in which your termination was considered and the ages of the individuals holding those positions, which is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

8. You agree that during the course of your employment with the Company, you have had access to and acquired certain Confidential Information (as such term is defined in the Employee Confidentiality and Intellectual Property Agreement or similar agreement entered into between you and the Company (the "Confidentiality Agreement")) which information you agree would be damaging to the Company and its subsidiaries, affiliates and parent companies if disclosed to a competitor or made available to any other person or corporation engaged in a similar business. You agree that such information was divulged to you in confidence and you further agree that you are bound to keep such information secret and confidential in accordance with the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement. You acknowledge and agree that you continue to be bound by all provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement which are intended to survive the termination of your employment with the Company. A copy of the Confidentiality Agreement is available to you upon request.

9. You represent and warrant that you have returned to the Company all of the Company's property, including all documents, materials, memoranda, records, customer or supplier lists and information, information contained in or on computer files, disks, drives, cellular phones, tablets, cloud or email accounts or other storage media or devices, credit cards, keys and equipment, including laptops, cellular telephones or other property of whatever nature (and any copies thereof) belonging to the Company or any of its affiliates. You further represent and warrant that you have deleted any Confidential Information from all computers, disks, drives, cellular phones, tablets, cloud or email accounts or other storage media or devices within your possession, custody or control that do not belong to the Company or any of the other Released Parties. However, nothing in this paragraph will prevent you from retaining any documents in your possession, custody or control concerning your employee benefits and/or your compensation. If you have any personal belongings on Company premises, you and the Company will work together in good faith to arrange for the return of such personal belongings.

10. You understand that, notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall (a) prevent you from making a report or disclosure of information that is protected under the whistleblower provisions of state or federal law or regulation to any self-regulatory organization, governmental agency, or legislative body; (b) prohibit you from disclosing information about unlawful acts or conduct in the workplace, such as harassment or discrimination or any other conduct that you have reason to believe is unlawful; (c) waive your right to testify in an administrative, legislative, or judicial proceeding concerning alleged criminal conduct or sexual harassment if you are required or requested to attend the proceeding pursuant to a court order, subpoena, or written request from an administrative agency or the legislature; or (d) prohibit you from initiating communications directly with, responding to any inquiries from, providing testimony before, filing a claim with, or assisting with an investigation of a self-regulatory authority or a government agency or entity, including the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Department of Labor, the National Labor Relations Board, the Department of Justice, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Congress, and any agency Inspector General (collectively, the "Regulators"). However, to the maximum extent permitted by law, you are waiving your right to receive any individual monetary relief from the Company or any of the Released Parties resulting from such claims or conduct, regardless of whether you or another party has filed them, and in the event you obtain such monetary relief, the Company will be entitled to an offset for the payments made pursuant to this letter agreement. This letter agreement does not limit your right to receive an award from any Regulator that provides awards for providing information relating to a potential violation of law. Moreover, pursuant to the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, you will not be held criminally or civilly liable if you disclose a trade secret where the disclosure is made (x) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney, and solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (y) in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal. Federal law also provides that an individual who files a lawsuit for retaliation by an employer for reporting a suspected violation of law may disclose the trade secret to the attorney of the individual and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if the individual files any document containing the trade secret under seal, and does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

11. You agree that this letter agreement and the matters discussed herein are entirely confidential. You agree not to disclose, reveal, publish or discuss to or with anyone, including without limitation, present, former or future employees of the Company, either directly or indirectly, any information whatsoever regarding the existence or substance of this letter agreement, except to your attorney or accountant or as required by law. You also agree not to disparage the Company, its subsidiaries, affiliates and parent companies, and its and their respective present, former or future officers, shareholders, directors, agents or employees. Violation of this paragraph shall be deemed a material breach of this letter agreement.

12. You agree that the Company has no obligation to employ you or offer you employment in the future and that you shall have no recourse against the Company if it refuses to employ you or offer you employment in the future.

13. You agree that this letter agreement does not constitute an admission of liability, culpability, negligence or wrongdoing on the part of the Company or the Released Parties and will not be construed or used as an admission of liability, culpability, negligence or wrongdoing against you, the Company or the other Released Parties. You acknowledge and agree that the Company denies any wrongdoing or liability for any matter released hereunder.

14. This letter agreement is made and entered into in the State of California and, except as set forth herein, shall in all respects be interpreted, enforced and governed under the laws of California. The language of all parts of this letter agreement shall in all cases be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against any of the parties. The parties agree that should any dispute arise between the parties arising out of or relating to this letter agreement or the claims released herein, the issue shall be submitted to binding arbitration in Los Angeles, California, before a single arbitrator pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act and the applicable rules of JAMS. All claims must be brought in a party's individual capacity and not as a representative of a class, collective or representative action or proceeding, to the maximum extent permitted by law. Each party shall bear such party's own attorneys' fees and costs, subject to applicable law. Notwithstanding the above, either party may, in its discretion, obtain any provisional remedy including without limitation, injunctive or similar relief, from any court of competent jurisdiction as may be necessary to protect such party's respective rights and interests and if necessary to avoid irreparable harm.

15. This letter agreement, including the Confidentiality Agreement, sets forth the entire understanding and agreement of the parties as to the subject matter herein. Except for the Confidentiality Agreement, this letter agreement supersedes and replaces all negotiations and/or other previous agreements between you and the Company or its subsidiaries, affiliates, or parent companies. You agree that no Company representative has made any representation to you relating to this letter agreement which is not contained in the express terms of this letter. Any failure of either party to enforce any provision of this letter agreement will not constitute a waiver of that party's right to subsequently enforce such provision or any other provision of this letter agreement. You agree that in interpreting this letter agreement, there will be no presumption against the Company because it was the drafter of this letter agreement. If any provision of this letter agreement is held to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, in whole or in part, the parties hereto agree that such provision shall be reformed or modified by an arbitrator or court of competent jurisdiction so as to be rendered enforceable, to the maximum extent permitted by law. If any such provision cannot be reformed or modified, such invalid, void or unenforceable provision will be severed from this Agreement, and the remaining provisions will nevertheless continue in full force and effect without being impaired or invalidated in any way and shall be given force and effect. This letter agreement may not be modified, altered or changed except in a written document signed by you and the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Legal Officer of the Company.

16. This letter agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, including by facsimile or other means of electronic transmission such as by electronic mail in ".pdf" form, each of which will be deemed to be an original copy of this letter agreement and all of which, when taken together, will be deemed to constitute one and the same agreement.

We would like to extend our appreciation to you for your past service and our sincere hope for success in your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

Todd H. Greene
EVP Business Affairs

I acknowledge that this letter agreement has been provided to me in connection with a termination of a group of employees and that I have been given forty-five (45) days from the Termination Date to consider the terms of this letter agreement (or I have waived such requirement) and that I have been advised to consult an attorney if I so desire. I knowingly and voluntarily agree to and accept the terms outlined in this letter agreement without reservation.

RE: Job Eliminations Disclosure

Under federal law (the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act), the following information is being provided by Penske Media Corporation (the “Company”) to persons employed by the Company age forty (40) years of age and older who are being selected for involuntary termination. This disclosure is being provided in connection with the termination of a group of employees.

The information provided below was finalized as of July 31, 2025 and separations are expected to occur between August 31, 2025 and December 31, 2025 (the “Separation Period”). The chart below shows the job positions and ages of employees employed by the Company who have been selected for termination during the Separation Period as a result of their decision not to change their status as remote employees and/or not perform their job functions from a Company office at least 4 days per week in accordance with the Company’s return to office policy and those who have not been selected for termination because they have chosen to perform their services for the Company from a Company office at least 4 days per week. The data provided below is subject to change and may be affected by future employment decisions. If you have any questions about this information, or if you wish to receive up-to-date information in the future, please contact Lauren Utecht, SVP Human Resources, 11355 W. Olympic Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90064.

The decisional unit (collectively, the “Unit”) is defined as all employees of the Company who (i) were classified as remote employees or (ii) were not performing their services for the Company from a Company office at least 4 days per week. Employees in the Unit listed as “Selected” have selected for the termination program. Employees in the Unit listed below as “Not Selected” have not been selected for the termination program.

All of the employees terminated during the Separation Period are eligible for termination benefits pursuant to this termination program. Employees were selected for termination based on their decision not to change their status as remote employees and/or not perform their job functions from a Company office at least 4 days per week in accordance with the Company’s return to office policy.
