Dear Mike Ye:

On 12/31/2025, you experienced an event of a/an Termination which constitutes a qualifying event under the Penske Media Corporation group health plan(s). As a result, your coverage, and that of your covered dependent(s), if any, will end on the date(s) set forth on the COBRA Continuation Election Form accompanying this letter. Under the provisions of the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA) this entitles you and your covered dependent(s) if any, to elect to continue coverage (referred to as COBRA coverage) under the plan(s) enrolled as active member(s). COBRA coverage is the same coverage that the Plan gives to other participants or beneficiaries who aren't on COBRA. Each "qualified beneficiary" who elects COBRA will have the same rights under the Plan as other participants or beneficiaries covered under the component or components of the Plan elected by the qualified beneficiary, including open enrollment and special enrollment rights. (Certain newborns, newly adopted children, and alternate recipients under QMCSOs may also be qualified beneficiaries. This is discussed in more detail in separate paragraphs below.) The first day of COBRA coverage and the maximum continuation period is determined by plan. Please refer to your COBRA Election Form enclosed to determine your first day of COBRA coverage and maximum continuation period ("Last Day of COBRA").

How to Elect COBRA Coverage

Under COBRA, you have a limited number of days to elect continuation coverage. Your election window is determined by the plan and is calculated from the date your coverage under the plan is lost because of the event described above or the date this notice of your election rights is sent to you, whichever is later. To elect COBRA coverage, you must complete and submit the enclosed election form to Benefit Management Solutions Inc. known as the Plan administrator, no later than the Election Period End date ("Last Day to Elect") listed on the enclosed COBRA Election Form. Failure to do so will result in loss of the right to elect COBRA coverage under the Plan. This same notice is being sent separately to your spouse, if any; however, only one of you needs to elect continuation coverage for your spouse and dependent child(ren), if any, who wish to continue coverage. Furthermore, because COBRA gives you the right to elect coverage independently, you, your spouse or dependent child(ren), if any, may elect single coverage and not include those individuals who do not wish to continue coverage.

Other Health Coverage Options

In addition to COBRA coverage, other health coverage options may be available to you, such as coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace at www.healthcare.gov or 1-800-318-2596. You may also be eligible to enroll in coverage through Medicaid or another group health plan (like a spouse's plan), if you request enrollment within 30 days of the loss of coverage. Some of these options may cost less than COBRA continuation coverage.

Can I enroll in Medicare instead of COBRA continuation coverage after my group health plan coverage ends?

In general, if you don't enroll in Medicare Part A or B when you are first eligible because you are still employed, after the initial enrollment period for Medicare Part A or B, you have an 8-month special enrollment period to sign up, beginning on the earlier of

- The month after your employment ends; or
- The month after group health plan coverage based on current employment ends.

If you don't enroll in Medicare Part B and elect COBRA continuation coverage instead, you may have to pay a Part B late enrollment penalty and you may have a gap in coverage if you decide you want Part B later. If you elect COBRA continuation coverage and then enroll in Medicare Part A or B before the COBRA continuation coverage ends, the Plan may terminate your continuation coverage. However, if Medicare Part A or B is effective on or before the date of the COBRA election, COBRA coverage may not be discontinued on account of Medicare entitlement, even if you enroll in the other part of Medicare after the date of the election of COBRA coverage.

If you are enrolled in both COBRA continuation coverage and Medicare, Medicare will generally pay first (primary payer) and COBRA will pay second. Certain COBRA continuation coverage plans may pay as if secondary to Medicare, even if you are not enrolled in Medicare.

Payment of COBRA Coverage Premiums

The current amount of this premium and the due date for payment are explained in the enclosed COBRA Election Form. The premium may change in the future. We have used the information supplied by Penske Media Corporation to calculate your maximum continuation period under the plan(s) you were insured prior to your qualifying event. If there is a discrepancy between our calculation and the underwriting insurance carrier, the insurance carrier always governs. Please contact your insurance carrier(s) to determine the exact end of your maximum continuation period.

Length of COBRA Coverage Period

If you and your spouse or dependent child(ren), if any, elect coverage, it can last for a maximum continuation period ("Last Day of COBRA") described in the enclosed COBRA Election Form beginning on the date of your qualifying event, or loss of coverage, whichever is later. The first day of COBRA coverage will be determined by the plan. If you elect COBRA, you may be able to extend the length of COBRA coverage if a qualified beneficiary is disabled, or if a second qualifying event occurs. You must notify the Plan Administrator of a disability or a second qualifying event within a certain time period to extend the period of COBRA coverage. If you don't provide notice of a disability or second qualifying event within the required time period, you will lose your right to extend the period of COBRA coverage. The period of COBRA coverage under the Health FSA cannot be extended under any circumstances. The continuation period may be extended for the following reasons:

1. Death of employee, divorce, legal separation or change in dependent status

If these events occur during the original maximum continuation period of COBRA coverage, the period of coverage for your spouse and dependent child(ren), if any, may be extended. These events extend the original maximum continuation period of COBRA coverage only if they would have caused your spouse or dependent child(ren), if any, to lose coverage under the plan if the original qualifying event had not occurred. Note that to receive this extension, you and/or your spouse and dependent child(ren), must notify the Penske Media Corporation Plan Administrator within 60 days of the occurrence of these events.

2. Medicare entitlement of employee

If you became entitled to Medicare BEFORE your qualifying event, COBRA laws allow you to remain eligible for up to 18 months of COBRA coverage. However, your spouse and dependent child(ren), if any, may receive extended COBRA coverage for up to the greater of either: (a) 36 months from the date of your Medicare entitlement; or (b) 18 months from the date of your qualifying event, or loss of coverage, whichever is later.

If you become entitled to Medicare AFTER your qualifying event but within the original maximum continuation period of your qualifying event, your spouse and dependent child(ren), if any, may receive an additional 18 months of COBRA coverage. Note that a person generally has become entitled to Medicare when he or she has applied for Social Security income payments or has filed an application for benefits under Part A or Part B of Medicare.

3. Disability determination

If any of the qualified beneficiaries is determined by the Social Security Administration to be disabled, the maximum COBRA coverage period that results from a covered employee's termination of employment or reduction of hours (generally 18 months, as described above) may be extended to a total of up to 29 months. The disability must have started at some time before the 61st day after the covered employee's termination of employment or reduction of hours and must last at least until the end of the period of COBRA coverage that would be available without the disability extension (generally 18 months, as described above). Each qualified beneficiary who has elected COBRA coverage will be entitled to the disability extension if one of them qualifies.

The disability extension is available only if you notify the Plan Administrator in writing of the Social Security Administration's determination of disability within 60 days after the latest of:

- (1) the date of the Social Security Administration's disability determination;
- (2) the date of the covered employee's termination of employment or reduction of hours; and
- (3) the date on which the qualified beneficiary loses (or would lose) coverage under the terms of the Plan as a result of the covered employee's termination or reduction of hours.

You must also provide this notice within 18 months after the covered employee's termination of employment or reduction of hours in order to be entitled to a disability extension. If the notice is not provided to the Plan Administrator during the 60-day notice period and within 18 months after the covered employee's termination of employment or reduction of hours, then there will be no disability extension of COBRA coverage.

If the qualified beneficiary is determined by the Social Security Administration to no longer be disabled, you must notify the Plan Administrator of that fact within 30 days after the Social Security Administration's determination.

4. Bankruptcy filing

If the employer files for bankruptcy reorganization and retiree health coverage is lost within one year before or after the bankruptcy filing, COBRA coverage could continue until the death of a retiree (or a surviving spouse of a deceased retiree) or for 36 months from the retiree's death (after the bankruptcy filing) in the case of the spouse and dependent child(ren).

Newborns and Adoptees

A child who is born to or placed for adoption with you during a period of COBRA coverage will be eligible to become covered under the plan. In accordance with the terms of the Penske Media Corporation group health benefits plan and the requirements of Federal law, these qualified beneficiaries can be added to COBRA coverage upon proper notification to the Penske Media Corporation Plan Administrator of the birth or adoption.

Early Termination of COBRA Coverage

COBRA coverage may terminate early if:

- (1) The required premium payment is not paid when due.
- (2) After the date of your COBRA election, you and your spouse or dependent child(ren), if any, become covered under another group health plan.
- (3) After the date of your COBRA election, you, your spouse or dependent child(ren), if any, become entitled to Medicare benefits.
- (4) All of Penske Media Corporation group health plans are terminated.
- (5) If coverage is extended an additional 11 months due to disability, a determination that the individual is no longer disabled.
- (6) COBRA coverage may also be terminated for any reason the plan would terminate coverage of a participant or beneficiary not receiving COBRA coverage (such as fraud).

Continuation coverage under COBRA is provided subject to your eligibility. The Penske Media Corporation Plan Administrator reserves the right to terminate your COBRA coverage retroactively if you are determined to be ineligible for coverage. To be sure that you, your spouse and your dependent child(ren), if any, receive the necessary information concerning your rights, you should keep Benefit Management Solutions Inc. informed of any address changes.

If you sign up for COBRA continuation coverage, you can switch to a Marketplace plan during a Marketplace open enrollment period. You can also end your COBRA continuation coverage early and switch to a Marketplace plan if you have another qualifying event such as marriage or birth of a child through something called a "special enrollment period." If you terminate COBRA continuation coverage early without another qualifying event, you'll have to wait to enroll in Marketplace coverage until the next open enrollment period and may be without health coverage in the interim. When you've exhausted COBRA continuation and the coverage expires, you'll be eligible to enroll in Marketplace coverage through a special enrollment period even if the Marketplace open enrollment has ended. If you sign up for Marketplace coverage instead of COBRA, you cannot switch to COBRA continuation coverage.
